

Certificate on GDPR Compliance

The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) of 2016 was designed to harmonize data privacy laws across Europe, to protect and empower all EU citizen's data privacy, and to reshape the way organizations across the region approach data privacy.

We have examined the controls established at Akrivia Automation Private Limited (also referred to as "Akrivia") for compliance to the regulations prescribed under GDPR. The scope of our review covered all areas of operations where personal data of data subjects, as defined by GDPR, are being controlled and processed by Akrivia, the policies and the safeguards/controls designed for security of personal data handled by Akrivia over the course of its business operations.

It is hereby certified that the safeguards/controls operated by

Akrivia Automation Private Limited.
